

Easy Popup Creator Review - Steal Traffic From Any Website

With the Easy Popup Creator you can drive targeted traffic to your websites by creating professional popups on other peoples pages.

The Easy Popup Creator lets you can capture leads and/or sales from links you post on social media sites and basically anywhere on the web.

If you are wondering how to drive more free targeted traffic to your website, the Easy Popup Creator might be a great option! No matter if you are already active on Facebook, Twitter, etc. or not.

Why not capture leads and/or sales from the links you are sharing (from other people) on facebook, twitter, etc?

Why would you post a link from someone else if you don't have the chance to capture a lead or sale from that traffic? Some might argue, to built "brand awareness" and/or "authority".

But what if you could capture leads and/or sales at the same time and without much more work? Easy, with the Easy Popup Creator!

That is, if you are not posting 300+ links a day.

If you share a manageable amount of links from other people throughout the day, the time it takes you to create a pop up with the Easy Popup Creator, is well worth it. As you will receive free traffic which will be laser targeted in exchange.

This is awesome as we all know it's unethical to post links to products on other peoples fan pages. In general they will even delete the posts.

But page owners love it when you post links on their fan page that lead to a educational, funny or inspirational blog posts. With the Easy Popup Creator you can now add a popup to those pages. Now that's slick!

So when you are sending somebody to someone else's page, a popup with YOUR offer will show up! For each URL you want to share you can choose what kind of popup you'd like to use. Whether it's a welcome popup, a timed popup or even a exit-popup. The web based drag and drop editor makes it easy to customize style and layout of the popups.

The Easy Popup Creator comes with a Wordpress plugin which allows you to use your own domain to create the new URL (where the page with the pop-up will appear). To use it on unlimited wordpress installations they charge a monthly fee.

But check out the easy popup creator review video above to see the tool in action!

Where can I place my easy popup creator links?

One of the best places you can add your link is as you saw in the video above, probably on Facebook fan pages and groups. Of course placing the links on your personal page can, depending on how large your social reach is, have a great impact as well.

The trick is to get your social on: jump into conversations and place your easy popup creator link to a related funny, educational or inspirational posts.

If you have a great social reach on one or multiple other social media sites, place your link there and analyze your results. Compare them to other sources.

Another great way to find great places or better said, related conversations on social media sites to jump into, is BuzzBundle (free version available). My ultimate tool to drive targeted traffic to any site. ([ninja-popup id=310]Subscribe[/ninja-popup] to my free newsletter to read my upcoming BuzzBundle Review.)

BuzzBundle lets you enter a group of keywords and finds conversations on forums, blogs, Q&A-, social media- and video-sites for you to jump into. This tool makes it easy to find people that are interested in your product, right now! BuzzBundle automatically creates accounts on sites that require a registration prior to commenting. BuzzBundle also automatically confirms the email for you, so you can focus completely on commenting and placing your links. ;) They have a free version. I highly recommend it!

Places to add your link:

- Facebook - large related fan pages and groups preferred
- other social media sites - Twitter, LinkedIn, etc. (prefer large related groups)
- comment on forums and blogs, Q&A sites, video sites. (use BuzzBundle)
- videos descriptions
- e-mails
- e-mail signatures
- forum signatures
